

Eaton Certified Contractor Network

The Products and the Service Homeowners expect

Just a few of the services available:

- Wiring for additions and renovations
- Service upgrades
- Fuse panels replaced with breaker panels
- Knob and tube re-wires
- Aluminum wiring re-conditioning
- Standby power generators
- Spa and hot tub wiring
- Surge protection installation

quality • safety • reliability • experience

EATON

Home Surge Products

Locating a qualified and experienced residential electrical contractor can be frustrating. The Eaton Certified Contractor Network (ECCN) eliminates this frustration. Eaton has established a national network of professionally trained electrical contractors and provided them with product installation tips, advanced product knowledge and preferred access to the widest selection of residential electrical distribution, power quality and electrical safety products available today.

For a list of ECCN members in your area visit: myhome.eatoncanada.ca